

50 Boring Businesses That Print Money

The complete guide to businesses Baby Boomers are desperate to sell

Why This Guide Exists

I used to share just 5 boring businesses. But that's doing you a disservice.

With 12 million Baby Boomer-owned businesses changing hands in the next 5 years, and $10-14 trillion in business value transferring, you deserve the complete picture.

These 50 businesses represent the most frequently bought and sold SMBs in America. They're boring. They're unsexy. And they're making their owners wealthy.

The Silver Tsunami is Real

- 10,000 Boomers retire daily (19% own businesses)
- 78% of these businesses are profitable

- 60% have no succession plan
- Average owner age: 71 (up from 65 a decade ago)
- Service businesses dominate: 38% of all SMB sales

Translation: It's a buyer's market for the next decade.

The 50 Businesses (By Category)

Essential Service Businesses

Why they sell: Can't be outsourced, recession-resistant, simple operations

1. HVAC Services

$150-250/hr • Recurring maintenance
• Year-round demand

2. Plumbing Services

$125-200/hr • Emergency calls = premium pricing

3. Electrical Contractors

Licensed trade • High barriers to entry
• $100-175/hr

4. Pest Control Services

Monthly recurring • 85%+ retention rates • High margins

5. Commercial Cleaning

Contracted revenue • Night work •
Scale with crews

6. Residential Cleaning

Weekly/biweekly recurring • $100-200 per clean

7. Landscaping/Lawn Care

8. Pool Services

Seasonal contracts • Route density = profits

Weekly maintenance • $100-150/pool
• Warm climate gold

Automotive & Equipment

Why they sell: Aging vehicle fleet, essential services, repeat customers

9. Auto Repair Shops

Average car age: 12.5 years • Loyal customer base

10. Mobile RV Repair

10M+ RVs • $125-200/hr • Booked months out

11. Car Washes

Semi-passive • Membership models • High multiples

12. Auto Detailing

Mobile or fixed • $150-500/car • Corporate fleets

13. Equipment Rental

Construction boom • Daily/weekly rates • Asset value

14. Mobile Mechanic

Convenience premium • Fleet contracts • No overhead

Home Services

Why they sell: Housing stock aging, essential maintenance, premium pricing

15. Roofing Companies

16. Window Replacement

Insurance work • $10-30K jobs •
Storm chasers

Energy efficiency push • $500-1500/window

17. Garage Door Services

Repair + replacement • $500-5000 jobs

18. Flooring/Carpet

New construction + remodels • High ticket

19. Cabinet Making

Custom work • $10-50K projects •
Referral based

20. Gutter Services

Cleaning + installation • Recurring maintenance

Food & Hospitality

Why they sell: Owner burnout, proven systems, location value

21. Pizza Shops

Simple ops • High margins on dough •
Delivery boom

22. Coffee Shops

Morning rush • Loyal customers • High frequency

23. Food Trucks

Low overhead • Event income •
Flexible locations

24. Sandwich Shops

Lunch crowd • Corporate catering •
Simple menu

25. Vending Routes

Semi-passive • Location contracts •
Scale easily

26. Commercial Catering

B2B focus • Recurring clients • High tickets

Retail & Distribution

Why they sell: Protected territories, established relationships, simple operations

27. Liquor Stores

Limited licenses • Recession-resistant
• High margins

28. Convenience Stores

Location dependent • Add gas = 2x revenue

29. Laundromats

Semi-passive • Cash business • High multiples

30. Dry Cleaners

Recurring customers • Business contracts

31. Self-Storage

90%+ occupancy • Passive income •
REITs competing

Transportation & Logistics

Why they sell: E-commerce boom, essential services, asset-backed

32. Trucking Companies Dedicated routes • Contract freight •

Owner-operators

33. Moving Companies

Local + long distance • Peak season pricing

34. Delivery Routes

FedEx/Amazon DSP • Protected territories

35. Medical Transport

Non-emergency • Insurance pays •
Recurring

36. School Bus Services

Contract revenue • Predictable schedule

37. Courier Services

Legal/medical focus • Rush delivery premiums

Professional Services

Why they sell: Aging owners, established books, recurring revenue

38. Accounting Firms

39. Insurance Agencies

Annual recurring • Tax season surge • Sticky clients

Renewal commissions • Cross-sell opportunities

40. Property Management

% of rent • Scalable • Recession-resistant

41. Funeral Homes

$7-12K average sale • Preneed sales • Stable demand

42. Veterinary Clinics

Pet spending boom • Recurring visits • High margins

Specialty & Industrial

Why they sell: Specialized knowledge, commercial contracts, equipment value

43. Machine Shops

Custom fabrication • B2B focus • Repeat orders

44. Sign Manufacturing

Local businesses need • Vehicle wraps boom

45. Commercial Hood Cleaning

Fire code required • Night work • $800-2K/job

46. Parking Lot Striping

Every 2-3 years • One truck = $1M potential

47. Roll-Off Dumpsters

48. Party/Event Rentals

Construction demand • $400-800/rental

Weekend work • High margins • Seasonal peaks

49. Commercial Laundry

Hotel/restaurant contracts • Route density

50. Septic Services

Essential service • Rural focus • Repeat customers

My Top 10 for First-Time Buyers

Based on ease of operation, financing availability, and profit margins:

1. Laundromats - Semi-passive, simple operations
2. Car Washes - Membership models, appreciating assets
3. Self-Storage - 90%+ occupancy, minimal labor
4. Vending Routes - Part-time possible, scale slowly
5. Commercial Cleaning - Contracted revenue, night work
6. Property Management - % based income, virtual possible
7. Pest Control Routes - Subscription model, high retention
8. Mobile RV Repair - High hourly rates, growing market
9. Pool Service Routes - Recurring weekly, route density

The Boring Business Success Formula

What makes these businesses goldmines:

1. Essential Services - People need them regardless of economy
2. Local Market Protection - Can't be outsourced to cheaper locations
3. Recurring Revenue Models - Monthly/quarterly/annual contracts
4. Simple Operations - Can be learned in 30-90 days
5. Asset Light or Asset Backed - Either low capital or sellable assets
6. Fragmented Markets - No Amazon or Walmart to compete with
7. SBA Financeable - Banks understand and will lend

How to Find These Businesses

1. Direct Outreach (Best Results)

- Google Maps: Search business type + your city
- Call/email everyone with <10 reviews
- Message template: "Looking to acquire a [business type] in [city]. If timing and terms were right, would you consider selling?"
- Expect 10-15% response rate

2. Industry Associations

- Join local trade associations
- Attend meetings (everyone knows who's thinking of selling)
- Sponsor events = instant credibility

3. Intermediaries

- Business brokers (especially for $500K-$2M deals)
- Industry suppliers (they know everyone)
- Commercial real estate brokers (businesses + real estate)
- Local CPAs and attorneys

4. Online Marketplaces

- BizBuySell (largest, but competitive)
- BizQuest, BusinessesForSale
- Industry-specific sites

- Facebook groups for business owners

Valuation Quick Guide

Most boring businesses sell for 2-4x Seller's Discretionary Earnings (SDE)

Typical Multiples by Type:

- Service businesses: 2.5-3.5x SDE
- Retail (with property): 3-4x SDE
- Manufacturing: 3-4.5x SDE
- Recurring revenue models: 3.5-5x SDE
- Professional services: 3-5x SDE

Red flag: If they're asking more than 5x SDE, walk away (unless it's a very special situation).

Your 30-Day Action Plan

1. Week 1: Pick 3 business types from this list
2. Week 2: Find 30 businesses in each category (90 total)
3. Week 3: Send outreach messages to all 90
4. Week 4: Meet with everyone who responds

Goal: Get 5-10 meetings. Find 1-2 motivated sellers. Make 1 offer.

Want The Complete Acquisition System?

This list is just the beginning. The real money is made in the deal structure.

The Acquisition Accelerator includes:

- All 32 Blueprint documents from $80M+ in deals
- Creative financing structures that require little cash down
- Due diligence checklists that save you from bad deals
- Negotiation scripts that get sellers to finance 50-90%
- 30-day email course walking you through your first deal

Get it all free at: myleskameron.com

-Myles Kameron

P.S. While you're reading this, another Boomer just decided to retire. The opportunity won't last forever.